

TALKING ABOUT LIKES AND DISLIKES

Here are some expressions you can use to talk about something you like or don't like.

Rosie: Do you like apples?

Drago: I like them.

Rosie: Which do you prefer: ice cream or pizza?

Drago: Pizza. I love it!

Rosie: What is your favourite activity? Do you like flying?

Drago: I really like it!

Rosie: Do you like swimming?

Drago: No, not really.

Rosie: Do you like playing football?

Drago: I can't stand it.

I CAN SAY

Do you like it?

Yes, I do.

No, I don't.

I like it.

I really like it.

I like it a lot.

I love it.

I don't like it.

I really don't like it.

I can't stand it.

I hate it.

So do I.

Nor do I.

Nor can I.
